

Indian Express

INDIA'S ONLY NATIONAL NEWSPAPER

PUNE SUNDAY AUGUST 6 1995

Governor Dr. P C Alexander visited Sai Baba Seva Dham, a rehabilitation centre for disabled children, on Pune-Lonavla road on Thursday. Also seen are Mrs Ackama Alexander and Cultural Affairs Minister Pramod Navalkar.

Governor visits Sai Baba Seva Dham

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE

PUNE - The Governor, Dr. P C Alexander, visited the integrated rural development project of the Sai Baba Seva Dham at Kanhe Phata on Thursday and reviewed various rural development activities undertaken by the participating institutions. He was accompanied by Mrs. Ackama Alexander.

The institutions participating in the project are: Balgram SOS Children's Village, Community Aid and Sponsorship Programme, King Edward Memorial Hospital, King Edward Memorial Hospital Research Centre, Mani Bhavan Gandhi Sangrahalaya Training Centre, Priyadarshini Institute for Blind Women, Radha Kalyandas Daryanani Charitable Trust, Society for Education of the Crippled, The Research Society for Care Treatment and Training for Children in Need of Special Care and Bharatiya Agro Industries Foundation.

Dr. Alexander and Mrs. Ackama Alexander were welcomed by Mr. Prem K Darynani, managing trustee and other members of Radha Kaliandas Charitable Trust.

Later, the Governor visited various participating institutions and enquired into the working of the rural development project. He also visited the Sai Baba temple and community hall in the complex.

Mrs. Alexander distributed sewing machines to 14 students of Priyadarshini Institute for Blind Women who are completing their vocational training from the centre. She also distributed trophies to persons involved with the Sai Baba Seva Dham project since its inception for their dedication and service.

The Minister for Cultural Affairs also spoke